

What I should already know

- I can collaborate online to create digital content.
- I can describe strategies for safe and fun experiences in a range of online social environments and I'm respectful to others online.
- I understand that people may have a different online identity to that in real life and am able to interact with others.
- I am aware others can find information out about me by searching online.
- I know which technologies are used for online bullying and I am considerate of others when posting myself.
- I understand the impact technology can have on my health, well being and lifestyle.
- I am aware that some people want to access my data and can take appropriate measures to ensure this doesn't happen.
- I understand the need for copyright and the consequences of ignoring it.
