

What I should already know

- How to problem solve using decomposition?
- How to plan, write and test algorithms?
- How to create programs and debug as needed?
- How to use logical reasoning and the correct computing terminology? ?

Vocabulary

Code/ coding

Prototyping

User interface

Menu / navigation

Usability / interactive

Sticky Knowledge and skills

- I can use brainstorming and design thinking to design an app
- I can use a prototype to check if my app is easy to use
- App designers go through a create and improve phase
- A back end developer create the code to make things on an app work
- Search engines rank websites by how many people like the website. If the words on the website match what you typed. And if the website is safe and works well on your computer.
- I can create and program an