

What I should already know

- We are all special
- We are all important
- How to describe what we look like and what we like about our appearance.
- Know great things about ourselves
- Our fingerprints are unique

Text Focus

Vocabulary

Affirmation

Unique

Talents

Interests

Families

Traits

Circles

What is special about my friends? Spend some time identifying unique traits of our friends.

What I will know

- Each one of us is loved, special and important
- We all like different things and that is one of the ways we are unique
- Talk about how we demonstrate different emotions
- We are all special
- Tell other people about us and the things we like.
- We all have different talents and skills.
- We accept praise and encouragement from others.
- All families are different.